Trial Catarrh treatments are being mailed out free, on request, by Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. These tests are proving to the people—without a penny's cost—the great value of this scientific prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Remedy. Sold by Palace and Globe Pharmacies.

SHORT STORIES OF THE CITY

New Bridge Over Pinal—Work has been started on a new bridge over Pinal creek near the Gila Valley depot to connect Kinney Park with the east side of the creek. The bridge will have four concrete piers.

Mexican Wedding—Jose Ybarra and Alillie Gaspie were united in marriage yesterday morning by Judge W. F. Rawlings at his office on Oak street.

Judge Rawlings Moves—The office of Justice of the Peace W. F. Rawlings has been moved from the south side of Oak street in back of the Wells Fargo office to the north side of the street in the office formerly occupied by Judge Thomas before the completion of the court house.

Ill at Hospital—Mrs. J. C. Gatti, wife of the well known meat merchant, has been removed to the Old Dominion hospital for an operation, which will keep her in the hospital for about two weeks.

Sale a Success—The big sale which started at the store of the Globe Jewelry company yesterday afternoon is proving a pronounced success, the exceptional bargains attracting many buyers. This great sacrifice sale will continue until the stock is removed to its new home.

New Folder—The Randolph lines have just issued a new folder of the West Coast Route, which includes the Sonora, Phoenix & Eastern, Arizona & Colorado, Cananea Yaqui River & Pacific, Gila Valley Globe & Northern and the Maricopa, Phoenix & Salt River Valley lines. It is profusely illustrated with photos of scenes along the route, and scenes at various points of interest. The map and time table include information in regard to all the extensions of the various roads, and is full of information to the traveling public. The framework is the design of M. O. Bicknell, the general passenger and freight agent of the system.

Fine Boy Baby—"First a daughter, second a son, then the world is well begun." That is the little jingle that Theodore Collins of the White House was warbling yesterday, and it was all prompted by a clever little boy baby that the stock left at his home early yesterday morning. Mrs. Collins and the baby are getting along nicely and just as soon as Theodore recovers from his glee he will be circulating among his friends with the customary Havanas.

Handsome New Quarters—Roland H. Jacobs, proprietor of the Globe Jewelry company's store, has secured a long-time lease on the room formerly occupied by Edwards & Neff and will move to the new location February 1. The store room is being handsomely refitted with new floor and wall cases and when completed will be one of the finest jewelry establishments in the southwest. Mr. Jacobs is a thorough jeweler, an enterprising, wide-awake business man, popular with all, and he is well entitled to the big business he is doing.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

R. H. Kavanagh of San Francisco is a business visitor in the city.

C. E. Rule, the well known Green River whiskey salesman, is in the city from Tucson.

C. G. Miller of Guaymas, Sonora, was an arrival in the city last evening and is registered at the Dominion.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Swor and the former's brother, who have been playing an engagement at the Iris, left yesterday morning for Bisbee.

W. H. Wheeler, supervising architect of the Randolph lines, returned to Tucson yesterday, after spending a few days in Globe on company business.

Duncan McDonald, assistant superintendent of the Randolph lines in Mexico, left yesterday morning for Tucson after effecting a settlement of the trainmen's strike.

W. W. Kirk, representing the L. C. Smith & Bro. typewriter, Los Angeles, is in the city on business. He reports the city in splendid condition and is well satisfied with results here.

Dr. McClintock of Topeka, Kan., who came here several days ago with the party of inspiration stockholders, is able to be out after being laid up for several days with an attack of the grip at his room in the Dominion hotel.

MAKING NOT A PIKER
The Phoenix paper says that H. H. McNeill will go to Tucson to look into the book selling business. That the price of school books in the old pueblo is too high and that McNeill thinks of cheapening them! The joke in this item is the intimation that McNeill will sell anything cheap.—Mesa Free Press.

Revolutions in Social Life
Changes in the customs of paying social calls in New York are only representative of new habits all over the country. They show how far Americans have drifted from the old leisurely time when a call was a visit. Except among elderly people of both sexes, the former interchange of visits, which were long talks, has disappeared from the village life. New York notices that an evening call by an unmarried man on a lady or ladies would now excite something like consternation. Formal afternoon calls to acknowledge courtesies have fallen into an irregularity which betokens an early end. The tendency is to regard each dinner, party or gathering as an incident of itself, as far as men are concerned, to be counted as closed when the guests depart. Women adhere among themselves with more strictness to the etiquette of calls, but the newer and younger sets are inclined to disregard the irksome formalities which occupy so much time at inconvenient hours.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Reflections of a Bachelor
A man's wife is very tactful to pretend she is glad of it.
A girl that has never been kissed has a very poor memory.
Any stout woman can get thinner with the right kind of a dressmaker.

Notice

I am the man who will, without extra charge, go anywhere in the city to take an acknowledgment, day or night, rain or shine; also draw up deeds, releases, mortgages and wills at small cost; bug always ready in front of Brown's store. Phone 411. L. H. Brown, the notary public.

Mining Machinery News Item

Two money saving devices of interest to mining men and comparatively new to this district are as follows:

The Davis Calyx "Diamondless" Core Drill, which uses chilled shot costing under 10c per lb., in stead of diamonds. Will drill any ground. It does as much work in average ground and much more in soft ground than a diamond drill, and its first cost is less. It is made in several sizes, to run by hand, horse, gasoline, or steam power. Described in catalog G-91.

A still more important new thing is the Temple-Ingersoll Electric-Air Drill, run by compressed air, but still using electric power transmission; run by gasoline or steam power; uses 1-3 the power required for an air drill of equal capacity; no piping; no foundations. The Old Dominion uses one. Catalog G-20 tells of it.
